

Press Information

Ingolstadt, 19 October 2003

Motorsport Newsletter 32/2003

Maiden victory for Audi RS 6 Competition

SPEED GT: At Road Atlanta's Petit Le Mans event, Pobst earned the Audi RS 6 Competition its first victory in the SPEED GT World Challenge. Before next Sunday's final race at Puerto Rico, the Audi driver now also leads the point standings of the series. "The final race is going to be mighty interesting," said Pobst after his flag-to-flag victory. "We've made great progress throughout the year with the new RS 6. I'm delighted to have been able to reward Champion Racing and Audi North America for their hard work." Reigning champion Michael Galati completed the Audi success at Road Atlanta with his third-place finish.

Road Atlanta (USA), 17 October, 9. Lauf zur SPEED GT World Challenge

1 Randy Pobst (Audi RS 6 Competition) 27 laps in 48m 32.209s

2 Mike Fitzgerald (Porsche) + 0.458s

3 Michael Galati (Audi RS 6 Competition) + 1.733s

4 Phil McClure (Chevrolet) + 2.540s

5 Michael McCann (Dodge) + 5.139s

Positions after 9 of 10 races: 1 Pobst, 221 points; 2 Auberlen, 209; 3 McClure, 187; 4 Fitzgerald, 186; 5 Stuck, 171.

Next race: San Juan (PR), 26 October

AUDI AG

Communication Motorsport
D-85045 Ingolstadt

Phone +49 (0)841 89-34200

Telefax +49 (0)841 89-38617

motorsport-media@audi.de