- April 1, 2021: applications start for the 2022 apprenticeship year

Ingolstadt/Neckarsulm, March 30, 2021 – From April 13 to 15, interested high school graduates will be able to get information about apprenticeships at Audi in a live stream. Apprentices and trainers will offer insight into selected apprenticeships at the brand with the four rings in Ingolstadt and Neckarsulm.

Applications for the 2022 apprenticeship year will be accepted starting April 1, 2021. Anyone who is interested in an apprenticeship at Audi or who is still not sure which apprenticeship is right for them will have the opportunity to ask questions directly to apprentices and trainers from April 13 to 15. Audi Akademie is offering online career information events for the Ingolstadt and Neckarsulm locations: Trainers and apprentices will present various apprenticeships in 30-minute live streams. Questions can be asked and answered directly during the event through the chat function. Registration takes place online via the Audi Careers site. The dates for Ingolstadt and Neckarsulm can be viewed online at “Apprenticeship at Audi”.

“It is especially important to us to inform interested students about the apprenticeship opportunities at Audi despite the challenging situation,” says Christoph Hermreck, Head of Audi Apprenticeship in Ingolstadt. For Audi, training young people is an investment in the future. “For this reason, we are always adapting the training content to technological progress,” adds Johann Fandrich, Head of Audi Apprenticeship in Neckarsulm.

From mechatronics technicians and IT specialists to medical assistants – Audi has been helping young people launch their careers at its Ingolstadt and Neckarsulm sites for more than 70 years. Audi combines theoretical principles with practical knowledge transfer in 17 promising apprenticeship vocations. Applications for the start of the 2022 apprenticeship year will be open online from April 1, 2021, to September 5, 2021.
