This year the word "Sommerkonzerte" – summer concert – is taken literally with a top-class open air symphony concert in Kienzpark in Ingolstadt which will be shown live on the web for the first time. Presented to the world by none other than the delightful Sarah Willis.
 Friday, 2 July 2021 Following the concert Digital electro-session from the DMV-Festival at Audi Paul van Dyk DJ	Program Let's celebrate music! Crossing boundaries. Digital and analog. From classics to electro. Join in the celebrations and dance the night away! The concert will be streamed live on the Internet by Audi and can be accessed in the following 72 hours.	Information Sir DJ Paul van Dyk takes you to a place that has never before featured in the Sommerkonzerte: the DMV-Festival at Audi. He shows us how the best electronic trance rhythms for dancing can be generated from classical music.
 Saturday, 3 July 2021 11 am, main stage in the Kienzpark (in cooperation with the City of Ingolstadt) Audi Bühnerphilharmonie Pietro Sarno Conductor Sarah Willis Presenter	Program Eine musikalische EM – Musical European Championships Ludwig van Beethoven (1770 – 1828) Missa für Military Music, WoO 18 (Vorlescher Märsch) Dmitri Shostakovich (1906 – 1975) Suite for Variety Orchestra (Jazz Suite No. 2) Giuseppe Verdi (1813 – 1901) Fiumphal march from the opera Aida Liverpool Sound Collection and a medley of cult football songs	Information Football and classical music? What a match! The composer Shostakovich was a referee and passionate fan who wrote articles for sports papers. Today almost every football team has its own anthem. From Shostakovich to Queen, the Audi Wind Philharmonic plays a repertoire with a love of football on the day of the European Championship quarter-final! The presenter Sarah Willis is actually a team player with the Berlin Philharmonic. And who knows – among so many brass-blowing colleagues, perhaps she too will take up her instrument?
 Saturday, 3 July 2021 8:30 pm, main stage in the Kienzpark (in cooperation with the City of Ingolstadt) Georgisches Kammerorchester Ingolstadt Ruben Gazarian Conductor Giorgi Gigashvili Piano Alexander Mazza Presenter	Program Rising Stars Joseph Haydn (1732 – 1809) Symphony no. 70 in D major Sergei Prokofiev (1891 – 1953) Piano concerto no. 3 in C major, op. 26	Information The 21-year-old pianist Giorgi Gigashvili, whom insiders see as a man to watch, has what it takes to be one of the greats – and the Audi Sommerkonzerte are giving him an international stage. The young Georgian learns new pieces in such a way that he knows them from his innermost heart. "Forceful and determined, headstrong and unconventional," write the critics about this talented musician who is supported by Lisa Batashvili.
 Sunday, 4 July 2021 10 am & 11:30 am, courtyard of Turm Triva	Program Piazzola privat! Two neighborhood concerts in the courtyard of Turm Triva.	Information Out of the house at last! And everyone can sing – though not on the same level as the members of Ensemble LauschWerk, which consists of former singers from the Audi Youth Choir Academy. From Octophorus and Despres to Elgar, enjoy vocal music at its very finest in the open air: "strong of impulse, bold, big" (Passauer Neupresse). Hear it for yourself!

Lights of Europe – Free ticket booking from 17 June 2021, 10 am

A special signal for special times. To celebrate the return of culture to the big stage together with you, this year Audi is inviting everyone who is interested to a festival that is completely free: "Let's celebrate music!"

Reserving a seat and advance registration are absolutely essential for all who attend. Due to the continuing pandemic, the Audi Sommerkonzerte 2021 will take place entirely in the open air and on the web. All concerts at which an audience is present will be held without an interval and without telecasts.
